VALUE OF THE BRITISH SOVEREIGN.

Editor BRITISH COLONIST.—With your permission, I would call the attention of the commercial community to the present anomalous position of the British "sovereign."

The principal medium of exchange, in this Island, consists of coins struck at the mint in San Francisco, which are of uniform weight and fineness, with the coins of the Atlantic States. The intrinsic value of the British sovereign, as measured by these coins, is 486 cents, and I do not see why its value should be fictitiously raised to $5 here, unless it be for the purpose of disturbing our currency, or perhaps enhancing the salaries of government officials. Sovereigns are passing from hand to hand, and are being valued according to the caprice of each store-keeper and each department of Government. This state of things calls for the attention of our population generally, and of merchants in particular, who ought to meet and adjust the relative value of the coins in circulation, which would put an end to the confusion experienced in many mercantile transactions.

The intimate commercial relations existing between this colony and California, have naturally led to the adoption of the decimal system of currency and accounts; and the daily transactions in our stores being all reckoned in dollars and cents, and our merchants' books being kept after the same method, we have the best guarantee for the oblivion of £ s d. Thus we have attained a position in commercial progress, which may justly be envied by the mother country. While the present system is universal, the British sovereign must be regarded as an intruder and treated accordingly.

To banish the sovereign from its native soil, which would be the case if its value was reduced below 480 cents, would, perhaps, be unkind; but to let it remain in circulation for the convenience of old-fashioned patriots, at its true value (486 cents) is, in my opinion, perfectly just and right.

It has been suggested that Government should fix the value of the sovereign. But this cannot be done. It would be quite as reasonable to declare by legislative enactment, that so many blankets shall be received in exchange for one canoe, as to fix the relative value of different coins. There can be no adaptation of different currencies to one another, which will not be disturbed and overthrown by circumstances beyond the control of legislation. In every civilised country it has been the prerogative of the government to coin money, but the government stamp is merely a guarantee to the people, as to weight and fineness, but no extrinsic value can be given to a coin by legislative enactment.

Government, however, can declare both currencies a legal tender in this colony, at their respective values, and this ought to be done without further delay.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST.—I was in the Treasury, some days since, when some moneys were paid in, and heard the explanation given by Mr. Cooper, the Receiver, for taking dollars at 4s. In justice to all concerned I think it should be made public.

Mr. Cooper stated, as my memory serves me, that the Treasurer had no option in the matter: that in adhering to the rules given him by the Treasury in London, for the management of his department, he was compelled to keep all his accounts in £ s d; and that he had positive instructions, should he, for the convenience of the public here, receive dollars, to pay them away at the rate of 4s. He further stated that it had been the invariable custom in the Treasury since its establishment, to receive and disburse the dollar at that rate.

Now, sir, if this be so, the matter should be at once settled, by all public officers being instructed by His Excellency, to receive the dollar in place of 4s. For it is clear that the government loses two pence or 4 per cent, on every dollar received at 4s 2d. And this loss of 4 per cent, would, supposing the revenue of the two colonies to be £120,000, amount to the large sum of £4,800, per annum.

CURRENCY.

THE IRISH NEWS ON THE NATURALIZATION QUESTION.

General Cass, in behalf of the President, declares that a naturalized citizen who may have come to the United States at an early age, upon returning to his native land is subject once more to the political claims which his former sovereign may have had upon him; in other words that there is a distinction between native and naturalized citizens, under which a naturalized citizen may be divested of his American nationality, may be taken from the protection of the American flag, may be degraded to the condition of a slave, and that the American government cannot and will not exert in his behalf that protection which a native citizen might expect. He declares that native and naturalized citizens are not equals; he raises a distinction in their political character not raised by the constitution, but positively repelled by the whole theory, principles and practices of the republic.

We think not, and we think the Administration which publicly informs the sovereigns of Europe that they may seize, capture and coerce American citizens into the performance of duties and services which was renounced at the time of naturalization, is unfit to be entrusted with the protection of American freedom; is a disgrace to the land whose institutions it would make a mockery, and deserves the reprobation of every admirer of the United States.

EMIGRATION TO LIBERIA.—At this moment three vessels are on their way to Liberia—one from New Orleans, conveying thirty slaves of Mr. John McDonough's estate—to liberty and Liberia; one from Baltimore affording a passage for one hundred and fifty-three emigrants, chiefly emancipated slaves, but partly consisting of intelligent free colored men from Pennsylvania; and one from New York, the bark Mendi, conveying forty-five free colored men, nearly all from New York.

This is a larger number than the total of last year's emigration, and they are but the vanguard of a large company soon to follow.

QUARTZ DISCOVERY.

On Saturday, a new cause for excitement was created by the discovery, on the beach, immediately below Beacon Hill, and within 1½ miles of Victoria, of a rich vein of gold-bearing quartz. The discovery was made by Mr. Holderness, of the house of N. Treweek & Co., who has been long and largely engaged in mining in Mexico. For a month past, he has been searching for quartz around Victoria; but on Saturday was successful. The vein varies in width from one to two feet or so, and is situated at high water mark. The color of the quartz is greyish, with considerable iron pyrites in it. As near as can be ascertained, it will pay $200 per ton. Several tons will be taken out and thoroughly prospected. Should it prove as rich as it promises, at present, a quartz-mill will be immediately erected; and a new impetus will be given to Victoria.

His Excellency Gov. Douglas repaired on Saturday to the spot to view the vein.

In many parts of the island, quartz gold has been found. A fine specimen was found some two years ago near Mr. Leigh's farm. At Nimkish river, Fort Rupert, on the divide between Nanaimo and the West Coast, and in the country around San Juan harbor and Barclay Sound, quartz crops out abundantly. Considering the wide distribution of quartz over the Island, it is desirable that a law should be made regulating the taking up and working of quartz claims. The discoverers, in new districts, ought to be entitled to a double claim as a reward. But the immense extent offered as one claim in British Columbia, and the onerous regulations attending the taking up and working, ought never be adopted here. In California where the quartz only averages $30 per ton, 150 feet lengthwise of the vein is all that is allowed to each man as a claim, and is considered amply sufficient for the investment of labor and capital. Not over two hundred feet should be allowed here. Demanding security for working it is wrong. Let labor, enterprise and capital be entirely free from such shackles. Our policy should be to develop this branch of industry by the most liberal regulations, and not impose such royalties and regulations as are calculated to fetter industry and place the mines entirely in the hands of capitalists.

NAVAL.—H. M. S. Tribune, arrived at Esquimalt from San Juan on Tuesday.

H. M. S. Satellite is now at San Juan, having been ordered there to relieve the Tribune. On entering Esquimalt the Tribune saluted the Admiral, which was returned by the Ganges.

The U. S. Surveying Steamer Active, Capt. Allen, arrived on Friday afternoon from San Juan.

COURT FEES.—A movement is on foot among the members of the bar to reduce the enormous fees which are demanded in our courts. They are so high that they are almost equivalent to a law prohibiting the collection of debt. A reform has long been much needed.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.—Some regular standard of Weights and Measures should be fixed, in order to protect the purchaser. Between the Imperial gallon and that in common use, there is a difference of one-fifth. A corresponding difference in price may entail no loss on the community. Still it is advisable to establish a uniform standard, and appoint an inspector to enforce it.

LATEST FROM SAN JUAN.—The steamer Ranger No. 2, arrived from San Juan yesterday afternoon, bringing intelligence that another company of soldiers was to be landed on Sunday from the U. S. S. Massachusetts. That would raise the whole number on the island to five companies of Infantry, and four companies of Artillery. It was currently reported that Gen. Harney was not expected.

Five shanties were erected near the harbor.

The camp has been removed from the springs to the woods immediately behind the barns belonging the H. B. Company's station.

A company of Sappers and Miners are expected from Vancouver, by the North-erner, for the purpose of erecting fortifications.

Capt. Provost sent a boat ashore to bring Col. Casey and staff on board to attend Divine Service, yesterday morning. All is quiet.

Capt. Sir H. V. Huntley, R. N.,—formerly Governor of Prince Edward's Island, and latterly well known in California as a quartz speculator—has been appointed Her Majesty's Consul at Loando, and Arbitrator in the Mixed British and Portuguese Commission at the city of Loando for the suppression of the Slave Trade.

COURT OF SESSIONS.—On Friday, C. A. Angelo was brought into Court for sentence. Judge Cameron remarked that after a long and painful trial, he had been convicted of having knowingly furnished false statements; that the total deficiency amounted to about £600; and that considering the grave character of the offence, he sentenced him to imprisonment for the space one year in the common jail, and to pay a fine of £200.

Ex-Collector Anderson was fined £10 for a contempt of court, which occurred on the first day of Angelo's trial. The court adjourned till Friday next.

SAN JUAN MEMORIAL.—A Memorial will shortly be circulated for signatures, addressed to Her Majesty's Secretary for Foreign Affairs, representing our right to Juan, and the necessity for the Imperial Government to maintain it. Whilst we heartily second its spirit, we differ as to the manner in which it is to be introduced to the public. There is ample time to call a public meeting for that purpose, and if a full and fair expression of British feeling is called out, it will have a far better effect, and receive many more signatures than it would otherwise.

SEA.—Steamers Forewood and Pacific, due on Saturday, had not arrived last night at 12 o'clock.

LAND SALE.—On the first of September, the Government proposes to sell 30,000 acres of land in Nanaimo district, at the old price of £1 an acre.

H. M. S. Tribune, in coming over from San Juan, lost one of her topmasts, and a man overboard.

J. D. CARROLL.—Just read Carroll's advertisement, if you want liquors.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The Government of British Columbia for its own mysterious purposes has hitherto cautiously guarded every avenue by which any information could escape here, as regards the revenue and expenditure of the colony: thus treating the people as though they had no right to know the financial condition of the country. When we take in consideration the recent Custom House revelations, and those which are yet to be made, the reasons for hiding its financial transactions are easily understood. Notwithstanding the rigid secrecy maintained here with the connivance of prominent officials, we find that the Correspondent of the London Times has been used to illuminate the British public;—For on June 3, a letter, dated Victoria April 10, was published in the Times, which purports to give a correct exhibit of the revenue and expenditure. It will be remembered that about that period the famous ukase to gag the press was issued, and consequently an attempt was made to plaster over in the Times, many lamentable shortcomings. On another occasion we shall review some of the items; but at present we give the statement as published, without the comments accompanying it. The gross receipts from April 1858 to February 23d 1859, are set down at £22,924.1 5. The total expenditure £23,059.6.4. Leaving a balance against the colony of £2,135.4.11. Against this balance is found cash in hands of agents in interior £450.5.10, and £622.7.11 due from a Road Contractor. If these sums are deducted, the actual deficiency for nearly 9 months is £1,062.11.2.

The debt of the colony on Feb. 23d, is accounted for as follows:

Owing for coal for Government
Steamers supplied at Nanaimo mines.....	£	s	d

The latter sum £4660.19.9 includes the pay for the Revenue Cutter Resolute, stationed in the river last summer; pay to men detailed from Satellite as a coast guard; a quarters extra pay to the officers and men of H. M. S. Plumper; incidental expenses £20.16.8, and 27.10.0 for printing. The collection of the poll-tax cost nothing. The balance after paying expenses, was 7,955.3.8.

The Langley town lots netted £3017.10.8 after 3507.6.10 were paid for expenses of sale. The balance not paid up Feb. 23d was 8,387.6. By adding the revenue derived from Mining, Liquor Licenses, Customs, poll-tax and Langley lots, we have 19,924.7.1, which leaves a balance of revenue amounting to 2,997.14.4, which is derived. An old Rocky Mountain trapper was asked one day if he had ever seen any petrifications in the mountains, when he replied: "Bless you! I've seen a whole forest, sage bushes and all, petrified; one of the trees had all the leaves on, and a bird sitting on a limb. He must have been petrified in the spring of the year, for his mouth was open, just as if he was singing."

A quaint writer, says: "I have seen women so delicate that they are afraid to ride, for fear of the horses running away; afraid to sail for fear the boat should upset; and afraid to walk for fear the dew might fall; but I never saw one afraid to get married."

Tom Cribb was once upset from his gig, and picked up insensible; all kinds of remedies were had recourse to, to resuscitate suspended animation, but none were of the slightest avail. One of his friends who was present exclaimed:

"Stand aside, I'll wake him."
"Room was made, and he shouted in the champion's ear:
"Time, Tom!"

Tom instantly raised his head, and answered, "I'm ready!"

"Give me death, or give me Anastasia," exclaimed poor Pillicoddy; "what's life without Anastasia? and what's Anastasia without life?—Then give me death or give me Anastasia!—with a decided preference for Anastasia."

A common domestic clock, having run down, Tibbs, with unblushing effrontery, observed that it had come to an untimely end.

"I mean to abandon my habits of life," said a dissipated gentleman. "Are you sure, sir, they are not abandoned enough already?" asked his friend.
